Can't Eat

You certainly don't want to eat if you are not hungry. But you must eat, and you must digest your food, too. If not, you will become weak, pale, thin. Good food, good appetite, good digestion—these are essential.

Mr. Robert Venn, of Lancaster, Tasmania, sends us his photograph and says:
"I suffered greatly from loss of appetite, indigestion, pains in the stomach, weakness, and nervousness. Several doctors tried in vain to give me relief. A friend then induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for it had done him much good. The first bottle worked wonders for me. Soon my appetite came back, my indigestion was cured, and I was strong and hearty."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations "Sarsaparillas." Be sure you get Ayer's.

Keep your bowels in good condition by using Ayer's Pills. They cure constipation, coated tongue, biliousness, sick headache.

HAVE REACHED UNDERSTANDING

TURK AND MCCARTHY AND SAIL-ORS' UNION HAVE DECIDED TO ADJUST SHIPPING MATTERS.

A combination has been effected between Turk and McCarthy on one hand and the Sailors' Union on the other, whereby a distribution of the shipping business out of this port has been amicably arranged. According to the arrangements the two shipping masters are to have the deep water vessels and any foreign vessels bound from Honolulu to coast ports, while the American vessels going coastwise belong to the Sailors' Union. This distribution of territory will enable the two interests to work amicably and no further row is likely to ensue if the terms are adhered to.

According to statements on the water front the Sailors' Union interests have been trying to raise the price of sailors on the deep sea fleet to Delaware Breakwater. The rate has always been $20 a month both out of San Francisco and Honolulu. The Sailors' Union people are alleged to have tried to force Captain Madsen of the ship John Egan to pay $25 a month for a crew. Captain Madsen promptly refused and declared that he would ship a crew of Hawaiians and Japanese at the regular rate of $20. It is likely that no white men will be taken by this vessel which will be the first boat now in port, to sail for the Atlantic seaboard.

Oscar Lewis decided not to remain in Honolulu and engage in the shipping business. He went to Hilo week before last and took the bark Rodrick Dhu back to San Francisco. Evidently he considered the game too hard here.

CONVICTED OF FRAUD.

Associated Press, Morning Service.
WASHINGTON, February 27.—Machen, Lorenz and Groff have been convicted of postoffice frauds.

The conviction of A. W. Machen, George E. Lorenz, and the Groff Brothers constitutes a clear victory for the law officers of the Post Office department. Machen, Lorenz and the Groff Brothers were alleged to have conducted an enormous swindle. Machen was superintendent of the Free Delivery section of the department. As such officer it was claimed that he had purchased thousands of dollars worth of letter box fasteners, manufactured by Groff Brothers, Machen had as a business partner George E. Lorenz, formerly postmaster of Toledo, Ohio. The Groffs, Lorenz, and Machen unloaded the fasteners on the government, making enormous profits, and, with other similar deals, placing the finances of the Free Delivery system in a bad way. Machen was charged with receiving nearly $20,000 in profits for himself through this scheme.

FIGHT AT PORT ARTHUR.

Associated Press, Morning Service.
PORT ARTHUR, February 27.—An engagement lasting forty minutes occurred today between the forts and the Japanese fleet. No damage was done. It is expected that the Japanese will soon attempt a landing.

SCOUTS SIGHT EACH OTHER.

Associated Press, Morning Service.
TOKIO, February 27.—Russian and Japanese scouts have sighted each other twenty-five miles from Ping Yang. The Russians were moving southward toward the Tumen river.
The trails are bad. The Russians have seized an American Mining Company's premises north of Ping Yang.

JAPAN AND KOREA.

Associated Press, Morning Service.
SEOUL, February 27.—Korean troops will be ordered to join the Japanese.
It is reported that Japan has requested Korea to hand the French Minister his passports.

Beer must be pure to be good; must be brewed only from the best materials; must be scientifically filtered, thoroughly aged, bottled at the brewery and sterilized after bottling. It must always be shipped in the bottle, for beer shipped in bulk and bottled at supply depots is sure to absorb impurities.

The Famous A.B.C. Beers are guaranteed absolutely pure and free from all preservatives and chemicals used in other brands of bottled beers, which are injurious to the health.

They are never sold in bulk—are the only beers bottled exclusively at the brewery. Made from the finest Bohemian hops, they are aged for months, then filtered and piped direct from the brewery vaults into bottles by means of hermetically closed filling machines. This prevents the beer from coming in contact with the outside air, and insures absolute freedom from bacteria. It also preserves its natural effervescence and zest.

Six Points of A.B.C. Excellence

- 1—Purity. We absolutely guarantee the purity of all our beers.
- 2—Flavor. This is the distinctive, individual characteristic of any beverage, peculiar to it alone, and is the quality that has made A. B. C. Bohemian Beer famous.
- 3—Brilliance, clearness and polish, proving perfect brewing and fermentation.
- 4—Clean Taste. No disagreeable foreign or aftertaste, proving scrupulous cleanliness during brewing process.
- 5—Keeping Quality. The most trying test for bottled beer. A. B. C. Bohemian will keep and retain all of its qualities under varying conditions.
- 6—Solid, Creamy Foam, denoting body age and excellence of brewing materials.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR HANNA

of the casket. Every one present rose as the family entered, and remained standing until they had been seated.

President Pro Tem Frye then addressed the Senate, saying:

Senators—You have solemnly and lovingly dedicated this day to an observance of a proper funeral ceremony over Marcus A. Hanna, late a distinguished member of this body, and all business will be suspended to that end. We will unite in prayer with the chaplain of the National House of Representatives.

Chaplain Couder, who occupied a seat by the side of Chaplain Hale of the Senate, immediately in front of the presiding officer, offered up an invocation.

Immediately afterward Dr. Hale delivered his funeral address. He did not use his notes in speaking, but never halted for a word, and, although over 80 years of age, his voice penetrated every corner of the hall.

After the prayer with which Dr. Hale closed his sermon, the Gridiron quartet sang "Nearer, My God to Thee." This was the last tribute of an organization with which Senator Hanna had been a great favorite.

The train bearing the remains of Senator Hanna left Washington for Cleveland at 6 o'clock.

CLEVELAND, February 19.—Funeral services over the body of Marcus A. Hanna were held today in St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Shortly after noon the coffin was taken from the Chamber of Commerce to the church, two miles away. At the head of the column rode a platoon of twelve mounted policemen, followed by three platoons of Troop A, National Guard, mounted upon black horses. The hearse came next, followed by 100 carriages carrying the pall bearers and official guests, including members of President Roosevelt's Cabinet, Governor Herrick's staff, delegations from the Senate and the House of Representatives, members of the Ohio Legislature, city officers and delegations from several civic organizations.

Immense throngs of people lined both sides of Euclid avenue from the Chamber of Commerce to the church. When the body and its escort reached the church the edifice was closed to all but members of the funeral party.

As a mark of respect for the dead, business was abandoned from 12 to 2 o'clock throughout Cleveland, and for five minutes, from 1 to 1:05 o'clock throughout the state.
